Parental Involvement: Driver Ed has 4 components; The classroom (theory), behind the wheel lessons with an instructor (the lab), as well as observation of another student and driving with a parent/guardian to work specifically on the skills taught behind the wheel. Students need to practice those skills to progress through the increasingly difficult progression of drives. Should a student not be progressing, we may request or require hours of targeted practice to improve a skill set. Students driving skills must meet our basic driving standard to earn a certificate of completion.

Classroom expectations: Responsibility plays a key role in this course. Students are expected to behave in class and in the car with appropriate respect for themselves, their fellow students, and instructors. Disruptive, inattentive, non-participating behavior will not be tolerated. Homework is a required portion of the class. If the student gets behind by 3 or more assignments, they will be dismissed from the class. Parent Initials. _____

Circumstances that would result in removal from the program:

Excessive tardiness	Being under the influence of any substances
Excessive or unexcused absences	Suspension from school
Failure to complete assigned work	Misuse of Driver Education Equipment
Cheating (sharing or receiving work)	Willful violation or refusal to obey traffic laws

Lebanon High School has the right to refuse to allow a student to drive or observe during their study hall if their academic grades are slipping. Driving would be suspended until the student gets their grades up and the school has cleared them to resume driving.

The first class is mandatory so under no circumstance may a student miss the first class. Students may not miss more than 4 hours of class to stay within the State requirements for attendance. We recommend students carefully check their schedules and their other activities before the class begins. Students may not 'piece meal' together time. For example, the need to be late or leave early consistently is not allowed. Missed classes will be made up with a packet of notes, activities and make up quizzes. Parent Initials _____

Basic Driving Standard student must achieve:

A basic driving standard must be reached for a student to earn their certificate of completion. That is defined as the ability to independently demonstrate smooth and safe operation of gas, brake and steering. It includes knowledge and application of traffic laws, and the safe interaction with other motorists in moderate traffic. Basically, if we can take them through moderately busy area with minimal coaching, then they will meet the standard. That does not mean they are completely safe to be on the road. Should we have concerns, we will send an evaluation at the course completion to inform parents of lessons that may have not been covered if the student's skill set hadn't progressed. Parent Initials _____

Refund Policy:

You are entitled to a full refund of tuition, if we receive in writing, a refund request 2 weeks prior to the start of the first class in which you are enrolled. No refunds will be given after the first day of class. Parent Initials _____

IEP/504 students: High schools are required to follow IEP/504 accommodations that students need. Private entities, like driving schools, are not required unless they receive funding to do so. Every attempt will be made to assist your student through class with the tools that are available. An IEP copy is helpful to identify a student's needs and strengths, as well as a conversation before the class begins. An evaluation by a Certified Driver Rehab Specialists may be requested or required if instructors are not appropriately trained to meet your student's needs. Parent Initials _____

Progress Reports: Should a student appear to be struggling with any aspect of the program, every attempt will be made to communicate with parents to address those concerns and solutions. Parent Initials _____
